The corporate governance of Internet Initiative Japan Inc. (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Policy on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Policy

The Company recognizes the importance of enhancing corporate governance to achieve its mission of supporting and operating Internet which has become indispensable social infrastructure and to consistently enhance our corporate value. The Company has social responsibilities towards a wide range of stakeholders including shareholders, vendors, customers, employees and the entire Internet users. Therefore, considering the importance of the Company’s influence on society, the Company thinks it’s necessary to strive to obtain understandings of various stakeholders.

The Company's Board of Directors consists of 13 directors, including 5 outside directors and the Company's Board of Company Auditors consists of 4 company auditors, including 3 outside company auditors. Further, the Company has an Internal Auditing Office consisting of 5 members, including a manager. The Company adopted the executive officer system with an aim to further enhance its corporate governance by separating its decision making and supervisory function from business execution function and to realize its rapid and efficient business execution.

Oversight and supervision of business execution is carried by means of ordinary (monthly) and extraordinary meetings of the Board of Directors, management meetings consisting of directors, executive officers, etc., and monitoring and giving the necessary instructions to each of our business, project, subsidiary, etc. Oversight on business management and business audit are carried by means of ordinary (monthly) and extraordinary meetings of the Board of Company Auditors, assignment of a financial expert/legal expert in the Board of Company Auditors, conducting continuous audit including our domestic subsidiaries as well as overseas by Company Auditors and our Internal Auditing Office, and operation of our whistleblowers hotline system. Business activities by directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries are governed by the Code of Ethics, the Basic Rules for Internal Control, etc.

[Reason for Non-compliance with each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code]

The Company implements each principle of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure each Principle of the Corporate Governance Code]

【Principle 1.4】

Considering our business strategies, relationships with our business partners, and our cost of capital thoroughly, the Company might hold shares of listed companies as strategic shareholdings in some cases if the Company believes such shareholdings enhance our corporate value and bring profit to every shareholder of ours. Regarding our strategic shareholdings, the Company sold all shares of two stocks in FY2017 and a part of one stock in FY2019. The Company held four stocks, which fair value is booked as JPY4.98 billion on the balance sheet as of March 31, 2020. Strategic shareholdings are examined and discussed whether to maintain holdings or not mainly based on investment returns against business contribution holding and cost of capital. Regarding the exercise of voting rights for strategic shareholdings, the Company comprehensively reviews management policies and business situations as well as the contents of proposed subjects which to be resolved at general meetings of those companies. The Company exercises voting rights from the viewpoint that our voting leads to an improvement of those companies' corporate value in the medium- to long-term.

【Supplemental Principle 1.4(1)】

If a shareholder who holds our shares as strategic shareholdings shows an intention of selling, the Company makes an effort to resolve a factor which is thought to be not effective. However, the Company will not make any action to prevent their intent to sell our shares, such as reduction of business transaction.

【Supplemental Principle 1.4(2)】

The Company does not and will not have a transaction that lacks in economic rationality or harms the benefit of both the Company and our shareholders, with a shareholder who holds our shares as strategic shareholdings.

【Principle 1.7】

Regarding conflict-of-interest transactions with directors, the Company requires an approval from the Board of Directors in compliance with the Companies Act of Japan. Transactions with related parties are annually reported to the Board of Directors.

【Principle 2.6】

The Company outsources its corporate pension management to a third party asset management firm. CFO, finance, accounting and human resources divisions thoroughly review and monitor the performance, management policy, operation structure and process of the pension management firm.

【Principle 3.1】

- (i) The Company's business philosophy, business strategies and business plans are disclosed on the Company's website. (<https://www.iij.ad.jp/en/ir/policy/philosophy/index.html>)
